

TITLE 20 – LEGAL

CHAPTER 2 - OFFICE OF INDEPENDENT COUNSEL

Legislative History: Ordinance No. 03-89, “Ordinance Defining the Powers, Duties, and Authority of the Office of Independent Counsel,” was ordained and the Nation’s chairman’s previous veto was overridden by Resolution No. 305-89 on September 19, 1989. (Resolution No. 305-89 (overriding veto) passed by a two-thirds majority but was not signed by the Chairman of the Nation.)

ORDINANCE DEFINING THE POWERS, DUTIES, AND AUTHORITY OF THE OFFICE OF INDEPENDENT COUNSEL

ORDINANCE NO. 03-89

1 WHEREAS, the Legislative Council has by Resolution No. 169-89 2 established the Office of Independent Counsel; and

3 WHEREAS, the scope of prosecutorial jurisdiction must be adequate 4 to assure full investigative and prosecutorial authority
5 with respect to any matter which the Legislative Council 6 may refer to the Office of Independent Counsel; and

7 WHEREAS, the prosecutorial jurisdiction of Independent Counsel 8 shall include authority to investigate and prosecute all 9 crimes that may be referred to the Office of Independent 10 Counsel by the Legislative Council for investigation or 11 prosecution in accordance with the provisions of this 12 ordinance, including perjury, obstruction of justice, 13 intimidation of witnesses, abuse of office and such 14 other crimes contained in the laws or ordinances of the 15 Tohono O'odham Nation.

16 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED by the Tohono O'odham Legislative 17 Council that:

18 A. The authority and duties of the Independent Counsel, 19 notwithstanding any other provision of law, shall include:

- 20 (1) power to exercise all investigative and 21 prosecutorial functions;
- 22 (2) authority to participate in court proceedings and 23 engage litigation, including civil and criminal 24 matters;
- 25 (3) unless otherwise directed by the Legislative 26 Council, authority to appeal any decision of a 27 court in any case or proceeding in which such 28 Independent Counsel participates in an official 29 capacity;
- 30 (4) power to review all documentary evidence 31 available from any source;
- 32 (5) authority to contest the assertion of any testimonial privilege;
- (6) authority to make application to any appropriate court for a grant of immunity to any witness, consistent with applicable statutory requirements, or for warrants, subpoenas or other court orders;

- 1 (7) power to initiate and conduct prosecutions in a 2 court of competent jurisdiction, issuing and 3 signing complaints, and handling of all aspects 4 of any case, in the name of the Tohono O'odham
5 Nation;
- 6 (8) authority to report to, and to consult and 7 cooperate with the prosecuting attorney of the 8 Tohono O'odham Nation and the prosecuting 9 attorneys of other jurisdictions, including the 10 United States Attorney, concerning any possible 11 violations of law which may be revealed by the 12 investigation with respect to which Independent 13 Counsel is appointed, including violations of law 14 which may not directly relate to the purpose of 15 the investigation.

16 B. Payment of Costs for Office

17 All costs relating to the establishment and 18 operation of the Office of Independent Counsel shall 19 be paid from funds appropriated by the Legislative 20 Council and pursuant to a budget for the Office of 21 Independent Counsel adopted by the Legislative 22 Council at the time it certifies to the Chief Judge, 23 or Senior Judge, of the Tohono O'odham Courts that 24 it has reason to believe a law of the Nation has 25 been violated and that an Independent Counsel should 26 be appointed in accordance with the provisions of 27 paragraph E.

28 C. Additional Staff

29 The Independent Counsel may appoint, fix the 30 compensation and assign the duties of such other 31 employees as such Independent Counsel considers 32 necessary, including investigators, attorneys or consultants, subject to any limitations set in the Special Counsel contract and in the budget of the Office of Independent Counsel.

D. Independence of Office

The office of Independent Counsel and the person(s) appointed by him shall be separate and independent of any other similar prosecution agency.

E. Appointment, Qualifications of and Contracting for Independent Counsel

- 1 BASIS { (1) Whenever the Legislative Council has reason to believe that any present or former elected or appointed public official or judge of the Nation has violated any law of the Nation while purporting to perform the duties of office, it shall so certify the matter in writing, including the basis therefore and the nature of the alleged offense, to the Chief Judge of the Tohono O'odham Courts (unless the Chief Judge is the object of the accusation, or is involved in the matters from which the 1 accusation arises, in which case the 2 certification shall be to the Judge of the 3 Tohono O'Odham Courts with the most seniority 4 other than the Chief Judge). Upon receipt of 5 such certification, the Chief Judge (or the 6 Senior Judge, if applicable) shall designate a 7 Special Committee consisting of one Associate 8 Judge of the Tohono O'Odham Courts, one member 9 of the Legislative Council and the head of one 10 of the executive departments of the Nation, 11 none of whom shall have any connection with or 12 involvement in the matters from which the 13 accusation arises, which Committee shall select 14 and appoint an Independent Counsel under the 15 provisions of this Ordinance.

16 (2) The Independent Counsel shall be an attorney or 17 firm knowledgeable of Indian law who has 18 demonstrated experience to conduct 19 investigations and prosecutions in a prompt, 20 responsible and cost-effective manner.

21 (3) Upon its selection of the Independent 22 Prosecutor, the Committee shall negotiate a 23 Special Counsel contract with the attorney or 24 firm selected, which contract shall set out in 25 detail the scope of the Independent 26 Prosecutor's jurisdiction and budget. The 27 contract negotiated between the Special 28 Committee and the Independent Counsel shall be 29 executed on behalf of the Nation by the members 30 of the Special Committee, or any two of them, 31 and shall be submitted to the Bureau of Indian 32 Affairs for approval. No other approval by the Nation shall be required to make the contract a valid, binding contract with the Nation.

(4) The Special Counsel Contract shall be subject to and shall incorporate by reference all of the terms and provisions of this ordinance and of the budget established for the Office of Independent Counsel by the Legislative Council, and the Independent Counsel shall be bound thereby in the execution of his duties.

23 F. Custody of Records

24 Upon the termination of the office of Independent 25 Counsel, all records and documents which have been 26 received and created shall be transferred to and become a record of the Tohono O'Odham Courts.

27 G. Legislative Oversight

28 (1) The appropriate committee of the Legislative 29 Council shall have the legislative oversight 30 over the Office of Independent Counsel.

31 (2) The Independent Counsel shall submit to the 32 Legislative Council such statements or reports on the activities of the Office of Independent Counsel as may be provided for in his Special Counsel contract.

H. Removal of an Independent Counsel

An Independent Counsel appointed pursuant hereto may be removed from office only by action of the Legislative Council upon the recommendation of the appropriate committee of the Legislative Council having legislative oversight over the Office of Independent Counsel and a finding of good cause, physical disability, mental incapacity or any other condition that substantially impairs the performance of duties.

I. Termination of Office

The Office of Independent Counsel shall terminate when the investigation of all matters within the prosecutorial jurisdiction of such Independent Counsel, and any resulting prosecutions, have been completed or substantially completed, at which time the Independent Counsel shall file a final report with the Legislative Council.

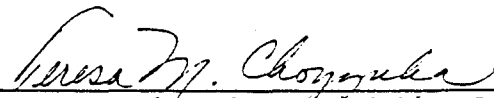

The foregoing Ordinance was passed by the Tohono O'odham Council on the 14th day of August, 1989 at a meeting at which a quorum was present with a vote of 734.0 for; 555.0 against; 435.0 not voting; and 02 absent, pursuant to the powers vested in the Council by Sections 1 (c)(6) and 1 (d) of Article VI of the Constitution of the Tohono O'odham Nation, adopted by the Tohono O'odham Nation on January 18, 1986, and approved by the Acting Deputy Assistant Secretary -Indian Affairs (Operations) on March 6, 1986, pursuant to Section 16 of the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984).
